2. Insertion of new section 47A.—After section 47 of the Road Transport Corporations Act, 1950 (64 of 1950), the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“47A. Special provision for reconstitution or dissolution of certain Corporations.—(1) Where on account of the reorganisation of States under the States Reorganisation Act, 1956, 37 of 1956, the whole or any part of a State in respect of which a Corporation was, immediately before the first day of November, 1956, functioning and operating, is transferred on that day to another State and by reason of such transfer, it appears to the State Government necessary or expedient that the Corporation should be reconstituted or reorganised in any manner whatsoever or that it should be dissolved, the State Government may frame a scheme for the reconstitution, reorganisation or dissolution of the Corporation including proposals regarding the formation of new Corporations, the amalgamation of the Corporation with any other Corporation, body corporate or a commercial undertaking of another State Government, the transfer of the assets, rights and liabilities of the Corporation in whole or in part to any other Corporation, body corporate or a commercial undertaking of another State Government, and the transfer or re-employment of any workmen of the Corporation, and the State Government may forward the scheme to the Central Government for approval.

Explanation.—For the purpose of framing any scheme under this sub-section, “State Government”,—

- (i) in relation to the Bombay State Road Transport Corporation, the Kutch State Road Transport Corporation and the Saurashtra State Road Transport Corporation, shall mean the Government of the State of Bombay, as formed under the States Reorganisation Act, 1956; and
- (ii) in relation to the PEPSU Road Transport Corporation, shall mean the Government of the State of Punjab, as formed under the provisions of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956.

(2) On receipt of any such scheme, the Central Government may, after consultation with the State Governments concerned, approve the scheme with or without modifications and for the purpose of giving effect to the approved scheme, the Central Government may, from time to time, make such order in relation thereto as it thinks fit and every order so made shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in this Act.

(3) Any order made under sub-section (2) may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) the dissolution of the Corporation, notwithstanding anything contained in section 39;
- (b) the reconstitution or reorganisation, in any manner whatsoever, of the Corporation including the establishment, where necessary, of more than one Corporation in any State;
- (c) the amalgamation of two or more Corporations, or of one Corporation with any other body corporate or a commercial undertaking of any other State Government;
- (d) the extension of the area for which the Corporation is established, or the exclusion of any area therefrom;
- (e) the transfer, in whole or in part, of the assets, rights and liabilities of the Corporation including the transfer of any licences or permits granted to the Corporation, to any other Corporation, body corporate or a commercial undertaking of any other State Government, and the terms and conditions of such transfer;
- (f) the transfer or re-employment of any workmen of the Corporation to, or by, any such transferee, and, subject to the provisions of section 111 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956 (37 of 1956) the terms and conditions of service applicable to such workmen after such transfer or re-employment;
- (g) such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters as may be necessary to give effect to the approved scheme.

(4) Where an order is made under this section transferring the assets, rights and liabilities of any Corporation, then, by virtue of that order, such assets, rights and liabilities of the Corporation shall vest in, and be the assets, rights and liabilities of, the transferee.”

3. Repeal and saving.—The Road Transport Corporations (Amendment) Ordinance, 1956 (8 of 1956) is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken in the exercise of any powers conferred by or under the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done or taken in the exercise of the powers conferred by or under this Act as if this Act were in force on the date on which such thing was done or action was taken.

THE REPRESENTATION OF THE PEOPLE (MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS) ACT, 1956

(88 of 1956)

AN

to provide for the removal of disqualifications for membership of, and voting at elections to, Parliament and State Legislatures, and for certain miscellaneous matters in connection with such elections.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Representation of the People (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1956.

2. Removal of disqualifications.—(1) Every disqualification for membership of Parliament or of the Legislature of a State incurred by any person under the Representation of the People Act, 1951 (43 of 1951) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act) before the commencement of the Representation of the People (Second Amendment) Act, 1956 (27 of 1956) for failure to lodge a return of election expenses as required by clause (c) of section 7 of the principal Act, is hereby removed.

(2) Every disqualification for membership of Parliament or of the Legislature of a State or for voting at an election incurred by any person under the principal Act before the commencement of the Representation of the People (Second Amendment) Act, 1956 for any illegal practice or for any corrupt practice other than the corrupt practice of bribery or undue influence is hereby removed.

3. Amendment of section 7.—In section 7 of the principal Act, in clause (e), for the words “any corporation in which the appropriate Government has any share or financial interest”, the words and brackets “any company or corporation (other than a co-operative society) in the capital of which the appropriate Government has not less than twenty-five percent. share” shall be substituted.

4. Special provision for nomination in case of prisoners in Portuguese territory.—Notwithstanding anything contained in section 33 of the principal Act, where a person detained in prison or other custody in any Portuguese territory wishes to stand as a candidate at any election that may be held within one year from the commencement of this Act, the nomination paper of such person and any declaration contained therein may be signed on his behalf by the proposer; but no such nomination paper shall be received by the returning officer unless at the time of its delivery the proposer produces before that officer:—

(a) a writing signed by such person and showing his intention to stand as a candidate, and;

(b) a certificate signed by a Secretary to the Government of India in the Ministry of External Affairs that the person is detained in prison or other custody in Portuguese territory.

5. Prevention of disqualification for membership of Parliament in certain cases.—It is hereby declared that the office of member of the Council of Advisers associated with the Chief Commissioner of Manipur or with the Chief Commissioner of Tripura shall not disqualify the holder thereof for being chosen as, or for being, a member of Parliament.

THE STANDARDS OF WEIGHTS AND MEASURES ACT, 1956

(89 of 1956)

AN

to establish standards of weights and measures based on the metric system.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Standards of Weights and Measures Act, 1956.

(2) It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

(3) It shall come into force on such date, not being later than ten years from the passing of this Act, as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint; and different dates may be appointed for different provisions of this Act, or for different areas or for different classes of undertakings or for different classes of goods.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) “First General Conference of Weights and Measures” means the Conference Generale des poids et Mesures held at Paris in 1889;

(b) “International Bureau of Weights and Measures” means the Bureau Internationale des poids et Mesures at Sevres in France;

(c) “kilogram” means the mass of the platinum-iridium cylinder deposited at the International Bureau of Weights and Measures and declared international proto-type of the kilogramme by the First General Conference of Weights and Measures;

(d) “metre” means the distance, at zero degree centigrade and under normal atmospheric pressure, between the axes of the two median lines traced on the platinum-iridium bar deposited at the International Bureau of Weights and Measures and declared international proto-type of the metre by the First General Conference of Weights and Measures;

(e) “normal atmospheric pressure” means the pressure exercised by 101325 newtons per square metre, a newton being the force which imparts to a mass of one kilogram an acceleration of one metre per second per second.

3. Primary unit of length.—(1) The primary unit of length shall be a metre.

(2) For the purpose of deriving the value of the metre, the Central Government shall cause to be prepared a national proto-type of the metre and shall cause the same to be certified in terms of the international proto-type of the metre and shall deposit the same in such custody and at such place as the Central Government may think fit.

4. Primary unit of mass and standard unit of weight.—

(1) The primary unit of mass shall be a kilogram.

(2) For the purpose of deriving the value of kilogram, the Central Government shall cause to be prepared a national proto-type of the kilogram and shall cause the same to be certified in terms of the international proto-type of kilogramme and shall deposit the same in such custody and at such place as the Central Government may think fit.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (1) of this section and section 12, the primary unit of mass for precious stones shall be a carat which is equal to one-five-thousandth of one kilogram.

(4) The standard unit of weight at any place shall be the weight of the primary unit of mass at that place.

5. Unit of time.—(1) The primary unit of time shall be a second.

(2) A second means $1/31,556,925,975$ of the length of the tropical year for 1900.0, the year commencing at 12.00 hours universal time on the 1st day of January, 1900.

6. Unit of electric current.—(1) The unit of electric current shall be an ampere.

(2) An ampere means that constant current which, flowing in two parallel straight conductors of infinite length, of negligible circular cross section and placed at a distance of one metre from each other in vacuum, produces a force of 2×10^{-7} newtons per metre length between the conductors.

7. Scale of temperature.—The scale of temperature shall be the centigrade scale otherwise known as celsius where the temperature, under normal atmospheric pressure, is taken to be zero degree at the melting point of ice and one hundred degrees at the boiling point of water.

8. Unit of luminous intensity.—(1) The unit of luminous intensity shall be the candela.

(2) A candela means one-sixtieth part of luminous intensity normally emitted by one centimetre square of integral radiator (black body) at the temperature of solidification of platinum.

9. Primary unit of area.—The primary unit of area shall be the square metre.

10. Primary unit of volume.—The primary unit of volume shall be the cubic metre.

11. Unit of capacity.—The unit of capacity shall be a litre which is the volume occupied by the mass of one kilogram of pure air-free water at the temperature of its maximum density and under normal atmospheric pressure.

12. Secondary units of mass and measures.—The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare in relation to the units of mass and measures referred to in sections 3 and 4 and sections 9 to 11, both inclusive, the magnitude and denominations of such units of mass and measures as it thinks fit to be the secondary units of mass and measures under this Act:

Provided that every such secondary unit shall be an integral power of ten (positive or negative) of any one of such units.

13. Standards of mass and measures.—(1) Units of mass and measures referred to in sections 3 and 4 and sections 9 to 11, both inclusive, and the secondary units of mass and measures declared under section 12 shall be the standards of mass and measures.

(2) No unit of mass or measure other than the units of mass and measures referred to in sub-section (1) shall be used as a standard mass or measure.

14. Continuance of certain weights and measures during transitional period.—(1) Notwithstanding that this Act has come into force in respect of any area or class of goods or undertakings, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, permit the continuance of the use, after such commencement, in respect of that area or class of goods or undertakings, of such weights and measures, in addition to the standards of mass and measures and for such period, not exceeding three years, as may be specified in the notification.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to empower the Central Government to issue any such notification in respect of any weight or measure which was not in use immediately before the commencement of this Act.

15. Sets of standards of mass and measures.—(1) The Central Government shall cause to be prepared as many sets as it may deem necessary of such standards of mass and measures referred to in section 13 or multiples or sub-multiples thereof as the Central Government may consider expedient, and shall cause each mass and measure of such set to be authenticated as having been ascertained from the primary units of mass or measure, as the case may be.

(2) The Central Government shall supply to each of the State Government as many such sets as it may deem fit.

16. Conversion of existing weights and measures into standard mass and measures.—(1) The value expressed in terms of any weight set forth in sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Standards of Weight Act, 1939 (9 of 1939) or in terms of any measure expressed in inches, feet, yards or miles or in gallons may be converted into the value expressed in terms of a standard mass or measure at the rates specified in the First Schedule.

(2) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify the rates at which the value expressed in terms of any weight or measure other than those referred to in sub-section (1) may be converted into the value expressed in terms of a standard mass or measure.

(3) All references in any enactment or in any notification, rule or order under any enactment or in any contract, deed or other instruments to a value expressed in terms of any weight or measure other than those of a standard mass or measure shall be construed as references to that value expressed in terms of a standard mass or measure, as the case may be, converted thereto at the rates specified in the First Schedule or in the notification issued under sub-section (2), as the case may be.

(4) Where in any transaction the value expressed in terms of any weight or measure is required to be converted into that value expressed in terms of a standard mass or measure under this section, the calculation, for the purposes of such transaction, shall be made in such manner as may be prescribed by rules.

17. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the preparation of the standards of mass and measures under section 15;

(b) the custody of the set of standards of mass and measures which are to be maintained by the Central Government and the periodical verification and adjustment thereof;

(c) the periodical verification and adjustment of sets of standards of mass and measures supplied to the State Government;

(d) the limits of error which may be tolerated in the standards of mass and measures when they are manufactured for being used, or are being used, in transactions generally, or in any class of transactions in particular;

(e) the manner in which the value expressed in terms of any weight or measure other than in terms of a standard mass and measure may be converted thereto; and

(f) any other matter which has to be, or may be, prescribed.

(3) All rules made under this Act shall be laid for not less than thirty days before both Houses of Parliament as soon as possible after they are made, and shall be subject to such modifications as Parliament may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.

18. Repeal.—(1) The Measures of Length Act, 1889, (2 of 1889) and the Standards of Weight Act, 1939 (9 of 1939), are hereby repealed.

(2) The enactments specified in the Second Schedule shall, to the extent to which they contain any provision which corresponds to any provision of this Act, stand repealed.

(3) If, immediately before the commencement of this Act, or any provision thereof in respect of any area or class of goods or undertakings, there is in force in respect of that area or class of goods or undertakings, any law which corresponds to this Act or to any provision thereof and which is not repealed by sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), that corresponding law shall stand repealed.

THE FARIDABAD DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION ACT, 1956

(90 OF 1956)

AN

to provided for the establishment and regulation of a trading Corporation for the purpose of carrying on and promoting trade and industry in the town of Faridabad, assisting in the rehabilitation of displaced persons settled therein and for matters connected therewith.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Faridabad Development Corporation Act, 1956.
2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—
 - (a) "Corporation" means the Faridabad Development Corporation established under section 3;
 - (b) "displaced person" means any person who, on account of the setting up of the dominions of India and Pakistan or on account of civil disturbances or the fear of such disturbances in any area now forming part of Pakistan, has, after the 1st day of March, 1947, left, or been displaced from, his place of residence in such area and who has been subsequently residing in India;
 - (c) "Faridabad" means the new township at Faridabad in the district of Gurgaon in the State of Punjab, the area of which is described in the Schedule;
 - (d) "member" means a member of the Faridabad Development Corporation and includes its Chairman;
 - (e) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act.

CHAPTER II

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE CORPORATION

3. Incorporation.—(1) With effect from such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint in this behalf, there shall be established a Corporation by the name of the Faridabad Development Corporation.

(2) The said Corporation shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal, and shall by the said name sue and be sued.

4. Constitution of the Corporation.—The Corporation shall consist of a Chairman and such other members, being not less than four and not more than eight, as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

5. Term and conditions of service of members.—(1) The term of office and conditions of service of the Chairman and other members shall be such as may be prescribed.

(2) The Chairman or any other member may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Central Government, but he shall continue in office until the appointment of his successor is notified in the Official Gazette.

(3) A casual vacancy created by the resignation of the Chairman or any other member under sub-section (2) or for any other reason shall be filled by fresh appointment.

6. Disqualification for being appointed, or for continuing as member of the Corporation.—A person shall be disqualified for being appointed or for continuing as a member of the Corporation if he has, directly or indirectly, any interest in a subsisting contract made with, or in any work being done for, the Corporation except as a shareholder (other than a director) in an incorporated company:

Provided that where he is a shareholder, he shall disclose to the Central Government the nature and extent of shares held by him in such company.

7. Temporary absence of any member.—If any member of the Corporation is by infirmity or otherwise rendered temporarily incapable of carrying out his duties or is absent on leave or otherwise in circumstances not involving the vacation of his appointment, the Central Government may appoint another person to act in his place during his absence.

8. Vacancies amongst members or defect in the constitution not to invalidate acts or proceedings of the Corporation.—No act or proceeding of the Corporation shall be invalid by reason only of the existence of any vacancy amongst its members or any defect in the constitution thereof.

9. Committees of the Corporation.—The Corporation may constitute such committees for general or special purposes as the Corporation deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act.

10. Meetings of the Corporation.—(1) The Corporation shall meet for the transaction of business at such times and places as may be prescribed:

Provided that the Chairman may, whenever he thinks fit, and shall, upon the written requisition of not less than two members, call a special meeting.

(2) The Chairman or, in his absence, any member chosen by the members present from among themselves, shall preside at a meeting of the Corporation.

(3) All questions which come before any meeting of the Corporation shall be decided by majority of votes, of the members present, and in the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman, or in his absence, any other person presiding, shall have a second or casting vote.

11. Authentication of orders and other instruments of the Corporation.—All orders and decisions of the Corporation shall be authenticated by the signature of the Chairman or any other member authorised by the Corporation in this behalf, and all other instruments issued by the Corporation shall be authenticated by the signature of the Administrator or any other officer of the Corporation authorised in like manner in this behalf.

12. Appointment of Administrator and other officer of the Corporation.—(1) There shall be an Administrator of the Corporation who shall be appointed by the Central Government.

(2) The Administrator shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation and all other officers of the Corporation shall be subordinate to him.

(3) The Administrator shall have the right to take part in the discussions of the Corporation or of any of its committees but shall not have the right to vote at the meetings of the Corporation or of any of its committees:

Provided that when one of the members of the Corporation is appointed under sub-section (1) as the Administrator, such Administrator shall have all the rights and privileges of a member.

(4) The Corporation may appoint such other officers as it may consider necessary for the efficient performance of its functions under this Act.

CHAPTER III

POWERS AND FUNCTIONS OF THE CORPORATION

13. General duty of the Corporation.—It shall be the general duty of the Corporation to carry on and promote trade, business and industry in Faridabad, to assist in the rehabilitation of displaced persons settled therein and to manage and develop the property of the Union vested in the Corporation.

14. Powers of the Corporation.—(1) The Corporation may exercise all such powers as may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of carrying out its functions under this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, such power shall include the power—

- (a) to acquire and hold such property, both movable and immovable, as the Corporation may deem necessary for efficiently performing its functions under this Act and to make improvements in such property and to transfer by way of sale, lease or otherwise any such property;
- (b) to carry on or promote any trade, business or industry;
- (c) to give financial or other assistance to persons to enable them to carry on trade, business or industry in Faridabad primarily with a view to providing employment to, and rehabilitating, displaced persons settled therein;
- (d) to construct or cause to be constructed residential or other buildings and to sell or let such buildings or cause them to be sold or let, on such terms as may be prescribed;
- (e) to advance loans on such terms and for such purposes as may be prescribed;
- (f) to supply or cause to be supplied, in accordance with the law for the time being in force, electrical energy for domestic and industrial purposes at reasonable rates;
- (g) to take such other measures as the Corporation may deem necessary for the rehabilitation of displaced persons settled in Faridabad;
- (h) to take such steps as may be necessary for improving the economic and social conditions of the inhabitants of Faridabad.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the exercise of any power or the performance of any function by any local authority having jurisdiction in Faridabad.

15. Capital of the Corporation.—All non-recurring expenditure incurred by the Central Government or the body known as the Faridabad Development Board for and in connection with the development of Faridabad or for any of the purposes referred to in this Act up to the date of the establishment of the Corporation and declared to be capital expenditure by the Central Government shall be treated as the capital provided by the Central Government to the Corporation.

16. Grants and loans to the Corporation.—The Central Government may, after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in this behalf, make such grants and advance such loans to the Corporation as the Central Government may deem necessary for the performance of the functions of the Corporation under this Act; and all grants made and all loans advanced shall be on such terms and condition as the Central Government may determine.

17. Vesting of property in the Corporation.—All property, assets and funds owned or acquired by the Central Government or purporting to have been owned or acquired by the body known as the Faridabad Development Board for the purposes of the development of Faridabad or for any of the purposes referred to in this Act before the establishment of the Corporation shall, on such establishment, vest in the Corporation unless the Central Government otherwise directs in respect of any part of such property, assets or funds.

18. Repayment of capital and loan with interest.—The Corporation shall repay, at such intervals and on such terms as the Central Government may determine, the amount of capital provided under section 15 and all loans advanced under section 16 with interest at such rate as may, from time to time, be fixed by that Government and such repayment of capital or loan or payment of interest shall be deemed to be part of the expenditure of the Corporation.

19. Corporation to have rights and liabilities of the Central Government in certain case.—All rights, liabilities and obligations of the Central Government which, whether arising out of any contract or otherwise, were acquired or incurred by it in connection with any transaction for the development of Faridabad or for any of the purposes referred to in this Act before the establishment of the Corporation, shall be deemed to have been acquired or incurred by the Corporation and shall be the rights, liabilities and obligations, respectively, of the Corporation.

(2) All suits or other legal proceedings instituted or which might but for the issue of the notification under sub-section (1) of section 3 have been instituted by or against the Central Government may be continued or instituted by or against the Corporation.

20. Fund of the Corporation.—(1) The Corporation shall have its own Fund and all receipts of the Corporation shall be carried thereto and all payments by the Corporation shall be made therefrom.

(2) All moneys belonging to the Fund shall be deposited in such bank or invested in such manner as may be decided by the Corporation.

21. Provision for depreciation and reserve and other funds.—(1) The Corporation shall make such provision for depreciation and for reserve and other funds as the Central Government may from time to time direct.

(2) The management of these funds, the sums to be carried from time to time to the credit thereof and the application of the moneys comprised therein shall be determined in accordance with such directions as the Central Government may from time to time issue.

22. Power of the Corporation to spend.—The Corporation shall have power to spend such sums as it thinks fit for performing its functions under this Act, and such sums shall be treated as expenditure payable out of the Fund of the Corporation.

23. Budget.—The Corporation shall prepare, in such form and at such time each year as may be prescribed, a budget in respect of every financial year next ensuing showing the estimated receipts and expenditure, and copies thereof shall be forwarded to the Central Government.

24. Annual report.—The Corporation shall prepare in such form and at such time each year as may be prescribed an annual report giving a true and full account of its activities during the previous financial year and copies thereof shall be sent to the Central Government and the Government of the State of Punjab.

25. Accounts and audit.—(1) The Corporation shall cause to be maintained such books of account and other books in relation to its accounts in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) The accounts of the Corporation shall be audited at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed.

26. Amount due to the Corporation to be first charge.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, where a loan has been advanced to any person for the construction of a building or where a building has been transferred to any person, the amount due to the Corporation on account of the loan or transfer together with interest thereon shall be a first charge on the building so constructed or transferred.

(2) The Corporation may also take such further security as it may consider necessary for advancing any loan or for transferring any building.

CHAPTER V

MISCELLANEOUS

27. Direction.—For the purposes of this Act, the Central Government may, from time to time, give to the Corporation such general or special directions as the Central Government thinks fit and in the performance of the functions, the Corporation shall comply with such directions.

28. Returns and reports.—The Corporation shall furnish to the Central Government such returns, statistics accounts and other information with respect to its property or activities as the Central Government may from time to time require.

29. Mode of recovery of moneys due to the Corporation.—When any money is due to the Corporation from any person, then, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, the Corporation may, after giving that person an opportunity of being heard, issue a certificate to the Collector of the amount due and the Collector shall proceed to recover that amount in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue.

30. Delegation of powers.—The Corporation may, by general or special order in writing, delegate to the Chairman or any other member or any officer of the Corporation, subject to such conditions and limitations (if any) as may be specified in the order, such of its powers and duties under this Act as it may deem necessary for the efficient running of the day-to-day administration of the Corporation.

31. Members and officers of the Corporation to be public servants.—All members and officers of the Corporation shall, when acting or purporting to act in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act, be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860).

32. Removal of disqualification for membership of parliament.—It is hereby declared that the office of the member of the Corporation shall not disqualify its holder for being chosen as, or for being, a member of either House of Parliament.

33. Bar of legal proceedings.—No suit or other legal proceedings shall lie against any member or officer of the Corporation in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act.

34. Validation of certain transactions.—On the establishment of the Corporation under section 3,—

- (a) all action purporting to have been taken, and all transactions purporting to have been made by or with the body known as the Faridabad Development Board (including any action or transaction by which any property, asset or right was purported to have been acquired or any liability or obligation, whether by contract or otherwise, was purported to have been incurred) shall be deemed to have been validly and lawfully taken or made by or with the Corporation as if this Act were in force and the Corporation were in existence on the day on which such action was taken or transaction was made; and
- (b) in particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision,—
 - (i) all property and assets vesting in the body known as the Faridabad Development Board shall vest in the Corporation;
 - (ii) all rights, liabilities and obligations of the body known as the Faridabad Development Board, whether arising out of any contract or otherwise, shall be the rights, liabilities and obligations, respectively, of the Corporation and
 - (iii) all leases granted by, all contracts made with, and all instruments executed on behalf of, the body known as the Faridabad Development Board shall be deemed to have been granted by, made with, or executed on behalf of, the Corporation and shall have effect accordingly.

35. Power to remove difficulties.—If any doubt or difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may, by order, make such provision or give such direction, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient for the removal of the doubt or difficulty, and the order of the Central Government, in such case, shall be final.

36. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) the term of office and other conditions of service of members;
- (b) the terms and conditions of service of the Administrator and other officers of the Corporation;
- (c) meetings of the Corporation and the procedure for conducting business thereat;
- (d) the intervals at which, and the terms on which, the capital provided or loan advanced by the Central Government to the Corporation may be repaid, and the rate at which interest may be paid on the capital provided or loan advanced by the Central Government;
- (e) the form and manner in which the budget and the annual report may be prepared;
- (f) the manner in which the accounts of the Corporation may be maintained and audited;
- (g) the form and manner in which returns, statistics, accounts and other information may be furnished to the Central Government;
- (h) any other matter which has to be, or may be, prescribed under this Act.

(3) All rules made under this section shall, as soon as may be after they are made, be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

THE ADMINISTRATION OF EVACUEE PROPERTY (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1956

(91 of 1956)

AN

further to amend the Administration of Evacuee Property Act, 1950.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Administration of Evacuee Property (Amendment) Act, 1956.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the twenty-second day of October, 1956.

2. Amendment of section 6.—In section 6 of the Administration of Evacuee Property Act, 1950 (31 of 1950) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act),—

(a) for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint for any State a Custodian and as many Additional, Deputy or Assistant Custodians of Evacuee Property as may be necessary for the purpose of discharging the duties imposed on the Custodian by or under this Act, and the same person may be appointed as the Custodian, or as the case may be, Additional, Deputy or Assistant Custodian of Evacuee Property for two or more States.”;

(b) in sub-section (3),—

(i) for the words “State Government”, the words “Central Government” shall be substituted;

(ii) the following proviso shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

“Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to empower the Custodian to question any order made by an Additional, Deputy or Assistant Custodian in respect of any matter which the Additional, Deputy or Assistant Custodian is empowered by or under this Act to determine.”.

3. Amendment of sections 8, 15, 38 and 51.—In sub-section (3) of section 8, sub-section (3) of section 15, section 38 and sub-section (1) of section 51, of the principal Act, for the words “State Government” wherever they occur, the words “Central Government” shall be substituted.

4. Amendment of section 10.—In section 10 of the principal Act, in sub-section (2),—

(a) clauses (f), (g), (h), (k) and (p) and the proviso to clause (q) shall be omitted;

(b) in clause (m), the words “or of any amounts due to any employee of the evacuee, or of any debt due by the evacuee to any person” shall be omitted.

5. Amendment of section 11.—In section 11 of the principal Act, for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) Where any evacuee property which has vested in the custodian is property in trust for a public purpose of a religious or charitable nature, it shall be lawful for the Central Government, notwithstanding any thing contained in the instrument of trust or any law for the time being in force, to appoint, by general or special order, new trustees in place of the evacuee trustees and the property shall remain vested in the Custodian only until such time as the new trustees are so appointed; and pending the appointment of such new trustees the trust property and the income thereof shall be applied by the Custodian for fulfilling, as far as possible, the purpose of the trust.”.

6. Amendment of section 16.—In section 16 of the principal Act, for sub-sections (1), (2) and (2A), the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) Subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf, any evacuee or any person claiming to be an heir of an evacuee may apply to the Central Government or to any person authorised by the Central Government in this behalf, (hereinafter in this section referred to as the authorised person) that any evacuee property which has vested in the Custodian and to which the applicant would have been entitled if this Act were not in force, may be restored to him.

(2) On receipt of an application under sub-section (1), the Central Government or the authorised person, as the case may be, shall cause public notice thereof to be given in the prescribed manner, and after causing an inquiry into the claim to be held in such manner as may be prescribed, shall—

(a) if satisfied—

(i) that the conditions prescribed by rules made in this behalf have been satisfied;

(ii) that the evacuee property is the property of the applicant; and

(iii) that it is just or proper that the evacuee property should be restored to him;

make an order restoring the property to the applicant, or

(b) if not so satisfied, reject the application:

Provided that where the application is rejected on the ground that the evacuee property is not the property of the applicant, the rejection of the application shall not prejudice the right of the applicant to establish his title to the property in a civil court, or

(c) if there is any doubt with respect to the title of the applicant to the property, refer him to a civil court for the determination of his title:

Provided that no order for the restoration of any evacuee property shall be made under this sub-section unless provision has been made in the prescribed manner for the recovery of any amount due to the Custodian in respect of the property or the management thereof.”.

7. Amendment of section 24.—In section 24 of the principal Act, for sub-section (1), the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) Any person aggrieved by an order made under section 7, section 40 or section 48 may prefer an appeal—

(a) to the Custodian, where the original order has been passed by a Deputy or Assistant Custodian and the amount or the value of the property which is the subject-matter of the order does not exceed two thousand rupees;

(b) to the Custodian-General, in any other case.

(1A) An appeal shall lie to the Custodian-General from any order made on appeal by the Custodian under clause (a) of sub-section (1) on the ground that the order is contrary to law.

(1B) An appeal under this section shall be made in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed.”.

8. Omission of sections 25, 26, 29, 30, 31, 33, 35, 42 and 56 (2).—Sections 25, 26, 29, 30, 31, 33, 35, 42 and sub-section (2) of section 55 of the principal Act shall be omitted.

9. Amendment of section 27.—In section 27 of the principal Act,—

(a) in sub-section (1), the words “district Judge or” shall be omitted;

(b) sub-sections (1A), (2) and (3) shall be omitted.

10. Amendment of section 28.—In section 28 of the principal Act, the words “district Judge” shall be omitted.

11. Amendment of section 40.—In section 40 of the principal Act,—

(a) in sub-section (2), in clause (b), the words “or does not leave” shall be omitted;

(b) sub-section (8) shall be omitted;

12. Substitution of new section for section 48.—For section 48 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

“48. Recovery of certain sums as arrears of land Revenue.—(1) Any sum payable to the Government or to the Custodian in respect of any evacuee property, under any agreement, express or implied, lease or other document or otherwise howsoever may be recovered in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue.

(2) If any question arises whether a sum is payable to the Government or to the Custodian within the meaning of sub-section (1), the Custodian shall, after making such enquiry as he may deem fit, and giving to the person by whom the sum is alleged to be payable an opportunity of being heard, decide the question; and the decision of the Custodian shall, subject to any appeal or revision under this Act, be final and shall not be called in question by any court or other authority.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a sum shall be deemed to be payable to the Custodian, notwithstanding that its recovery is barred by the Indian Limitation Act, 1908 (9 of 1908) or any other law for the time being in force relating to limitation of actions.”.

13. Amendment of section 56.—In section 56 of the principal Act, in sub-section (2),—

(a) sub-clause (o) shall be omitted;

(b) for sub-clause (s), the following sub-clauses shall be substituted, namely:—

“(s) the terms and conditions of service of the

- Custodian and other officers appointed under this Act and for the furnishing of security by them;
- (f) the work to be performed by the Custodian, and the Additional, Deputy or Assistant Custodians;
 - (u) the delegation of powers of the Custodian to the Additional, Deputy or Assistant Custodians;
 - (v) the fees payable to the Custodian for the management and disposal of any property vested in him and the manner in which such fees shall be paid;
 - (w) the persons by whom and the time at which books of accounts maintained under this Act may be inspected and audited;
 - (x) any other matter which has to be or may be prescribed under this Act;"
 - (c) sub-section (3) shall be omitted.

14. Certain appointments, orders and rules to continue in force.—Any appointment or order made under section 6, and any rule made under sub-section (3) of section 56 of the principal Act before the commencement of this Act which is in force at such commencement shall be deemed to have been made by the Central Government and shall continue in force accordingly until and unless it is superseded by any appointment, order or rule made under section 6, or as the case may be, section 56 of the principal Act, as amended by this Act.

15. Provision of section 24 to apply in respect of all appeals.—The provisions of sub-section (1) of section 24 of the principal Act, as substituted by section 7 of this Act, shall apply to all appeals instituted after the commencement of this Act.

16. Repeal and saving.—(1) The Administration of Evacuee Property (Amendment) Ordinance, 1956 (6 of 1956) is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken in the exercise of any powers conferred by or under the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done or taken in the exercise of the powers conferred by or under this Act, as if this Act were in force on the date on which such thing was done or action was taken.

THE TERRITORIAL ARMY (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1956

(92 of 1956)

AN

ACT

further to amend the Territorial Army Act, 1948.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Territorial Army (Amendment) Act, 1956.

2. Amendment of section 2.—In section 2 of the Territorial Army Act, 1948 (56 of 1948) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), after clause (d), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(dd) “public utility service” means any undertaking which supplies power, light, gas or water to the public, or carries on a public transport, or maintains any system of public conservancy or sanitation and which is declared, by notification in the Official Gazette, by the Central Government to be a public utility service to which this Act applies:

Provided that no such notification shall be issued unless the Central Government is satisfied that, having regard to the needs of the Territorial Army, the persons employed in any such public utility service should, in the public interest, be made compulsorily liable for service in that Army under this Act.”

3. Insertion of new section 6A.—After section 6 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“6A. Liability of certain persons for compulsory service in the Territorial Army.—(1) Without prejudice to the provision contained in section 6, every person employed under the Government or in a public utility service who has attained the age of twenty years but has not completed the age of forty years shall, subject to the other provisions contained in his section and subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf, be liable, when so required to do so, to perform service in the Territorial Army.

(2) Where it appears to the prescribed authority that, having regard to the strength of the Territorial Army or of any unit thereof in any area or place or, having regard to the exigencies of service in the Territorial Army, it is necessary that persons compulsorily liable to perform service in the Territorial Army under sub-section (1) should be called upon for such service, the prescribed authority may call upon such number of persons as he thinks fit for the purpose of performing service in the Territorial Army.

(3) In requisitioning the services of any persons under sub-section (2), the prescribed authority shall have regard to the age, physical fitness, qualifications and experience of the persons to be called upon for service and the nature of the work previously performed by them while employed under the Government or in the public utility service, and the work to be performed by them in the Territorial Army.

(4) Every person liable to perform service under sub-section (1) shall, if so required by the prescribed authority, be bound to fill up such forms as may be prescribed and sign and lodge them with the prescribed authority within such time as may be specified in the requisition.

(5) The prescribed authority may require any person incharge of the management of a public utility service to furnish within such time as may be specified in the requisition such particulars as may be prescribed with respect to persons employed under him, who may be liable to perform service under sub-section (1).

(6) Any person whose services are requisitioned under this section may be required to join the Territorial Army as an officer or as an enrolled person according to the rules made in this behalf by the Central Government, and where any person has so joined the Territorial Army, he shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges and be subject to the same liabilities as an officer or enrolled person under the provisions of this Act.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the expression “person employed under the Government or in a public utility service” shall not include—

- (a) a woman;
- (b) a member of the regular Army, the Navy or the Air Force or a member of any Reserve Force;
- (c) a person who is not a citizen of India;
- (d) a person employed under the Government in any country or place outside India for so long as he is so employed; and
- (e) any other persons as may be exempted from the operation of this Act by the Central Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, on the ground that, having regard to the nature of the service performed by such persons or to the exigencies of the service in which they are employed, it is, in the opinion of the Central Government, expedient in the public interest that they should not be liable to perform service under this Act.”

4. Insertion of new section 10A.—After section 10 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“10A. Punishment for failure to lodge forms duly filled up, etc.—If any person fails without sufficient cause—

- (a) to comply with any requisition under sub-section (4) or sub-section (5) of section 6A, or
- (b) to report himself for service when so required to do so by the prescribed authority under sub-section (2) of that section, or
- (c) to submit himself to medical or other examination when so called upon to do by the prescribed authority under rules made under this Act, he shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with both".

5. Amendment of section 14.—In sub-section (2) of section 14 of the principal Act—

(a) clause (a) shall be re-lettered as clause (aaa) and in that clause as so re-lettered the words "or may be required to perform compulsory service in the Territorial Army;" shall be added at the end; and

(b) before that clause as so re-lettered, the following clauses shall be inserted, namely:—

"(a) prescribe the form under sub-section (4) of section 6A, the particulars that should be furnished therein and the authority with which, and the period within which, the form should be lodged;

(aa) prescribe the procedure for requiring persons liable for compulsory service in the Territorial Army to be medically or otherwise examined with a view to determining whether they satisfy the conditions imposed under this Act;"

Received Assent on 28-12-56.

THE YOUNG PERSONS (HARMFUL PUBLICATIONS) ACT, 1956

(93 OF 1956)

AN

to prevent the dissemination of certain publications harmful to young persons.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Young Persons (Harmful Publications) Act, 1956.

(2) It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. Definitions.—In this Act,—

(a) "harmful publication" means any book, magazine, pamphlet, leaflet, newspaper or other like publication which consists of stories told with the aid of pictures or without the aid of pictures or wholly in pictures, being stories portraying wholly or mainly—

(i) the commission of offences; or

(ii) acts of violence or cruelty; or

(iii) incidents of a repulsive or horrible nature; in such a way that the publication as a whole would tend to corrupt a young person into whose hands it might fall, whether by inciting or encouraging him to commit offences or acts of violence or cruelty or in any other manner whatsoever;

(b) "State Government" in relation to a Union territory, means the administrator thereof;

(c) "young person" means a person under the age of twenty years.

3. Penalty for sale, etc., of harmful publications.—(1) If a person—

(a) sells, lets to hire, distributes, publicly exhibits or in any manner puts into circulation, any harmful publication, or

(b) for purposes of sale, hire, distribution, public exhibition or circulation, prints, makes or produces or has in his possession any harmful publication, or

(c) advertises or makes known by any means whatsoever that any harmful publication can be procured from or through any person, he shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.

(2) On a conviction under this section, the court may order the destruction of all the copies of the harmful publication in respect of which the conviction was had and which are in the custody of the court or remain in the possession or power of the person convicted.

4. Power of Government to declare harmful publications forfeited.—(1) The State Government may, if it is of opinion after consultation with the principal law officer of the State, whether called the Advocate-General or by any other name, that any publication is a harmful publication, declare, by order notified in the Official Gazette, that every copy of such publication shall be forfeited to the Government and every such notification shall state the ground for the order.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions contained in sub-section (1) of section 6, where there is an order of forfeiture under sub-section (1) in respect of any publication it shall be lawful for any police officer to seize the same wherever found in the territories to which this Act extends.

5. Appeal to High Court against order of forfeiture.—

Any person aggrieved by an order of forfeiture passed by the State Government under section 4 may, within sixty days of the date of such order, apply to the High Court to set aside such order, and upon such application the High Court may pass such order as it deems fit.

6. Power to seize and destroy harmful publications.—

(1) Any police officer or any other officer empowered in this behalf by the State Government may seize any harmful publication.

(2) Any magistrate of the first class may, by warrant, authorise any police officer not below the rank of sub-inspector to enter and search any place where any stock of harmful publications may be or may be reasonably suspected to be, and such police officer may seize any publication found in such place if in his opinion it is a harmful publication.

(3) Any publication seized under sub-section (1) shall be produced, as soon as may be, before a magistrate of the first class, and any publication seized under sub-section (2) shall be produced, as soon as may be, before the court which issued the warrant.

(4) If in the opinion of the magistrate or court such publication is a harmful publication, the magistrate or court may cause it to be destroyed, but if, in the opinion of the magistrate or court, such publication is not a harmful publication, the magistrate or court shall dispose of it in the manner provided in section 523, 524 and 525 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898).

7. Offences under this Act to be cognizable.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, (5 of 1898) any offence punishable under this Act shall be cognizable.
